GUIDELINES FOR THE COMPETITION

Open Qur'an Recitation:

Under 16:

“Participants will receive assigned chapters or verses to prepare before the competition. On the day of the competition, participants will be asked to recite either a selection or the multiple chapters that they have prepared. For smaller chapters, they may be asked to recite the entire chapter. The selections will be randomly chosen on the day.

The participant will be required to recite a selection from any part of the Holy Qur'an which has been randomly selected. Prior to this, the participant would be unaware of the sections they will be reciting. Depending on the speed and quality of the recitation, the judges will determine the length of the recitation, up to a maximum of two pages (Uthman Taha script).

Hifdh (All Ages)

The participant is expected to memorise all the chapters given. On the day, the participant will be asked to recite from separate areas from anywhere in their surahs/Juz. This may not be from the beginning of the surah/Juz. For smaller surahs, participants may be expected to complete recitation of the entire surah. Where judges would like to test on part of a surah, they will initiate by reciting a verse or the end of a previous verse, and the participant is then expected to continue. Participants will be expected to give some lessons they learn about the surah after their recitation (excluding the Juz and under 5s categories).

Tafseer (all ages)

Participants will be given verses to research and prepare for in advance. They are able to use any reference material to prepare as long as they are able to quote the source of their research if asked. Recommended tafseer references are provided later in this information pack.

Tafseer 12-15

As can be seen previously, for this age group, 4 series of verses have been provided for them to research. On the day, each participant will be given an allocated time to provide a general explanation of 1 series of verses (from the allocated verses). This will be randomly selected for each participant. For the verses, the judges will then question the participant based on the general explanation they presented. Participants will be expected to comment on all verses in the series chosen. Participants can quote and refer to a tafseer in any language. Participants will have access to a copy of the Arabic Holy Qur'an for reference.

Tafseer 16+

On the day, each participant will be given an allocated time to provide a general explanation of 1 verse (from the allocated 8 verses). This will be randomly selected for each participant. For each verse, the judges will then question the participant based on the general explanation they presented. Participants can quote and refer to a tafseer in any language. Participants will have access to a copy of the Arabic Holy Qur'an for reference.

GENERAL MARK SCHEMES FOR REFERENCE

Hifdh and Open Recitation

1. Accuracy e.g. is the recitation correct/incorrect
2. Fluency - pace of recitation, continuity of recitation, stopping and pausing at appropriate places and breath control
3. Makhaarij - correct pronunciation of letters and words
4. Rules of Tajweed
5. Lahn - style of recitation

The judging criteria for the Hifdh category will include all of the above but more emphasis will be placed on the memory/memorisation of the participant.

There will also be marks allocated for the lessons learnt by the participant from the surah.

General Tafseer Marking Guide

1. General understanding of the verse/surah (e.g. historical background)
2. Cross referencing (e.g. other verses, tafaseer, Hadith, interfaith views)
3. Clarity of explanation
4. Ability to answer questions
5. Lessons learnt and implementation

COMPETITION RULES

Dress Code:

- Male: Khanzu/Dish Dashe/thobe, (topi recommended)
- Female: Loose Chadar/Abaya with modest head covering (maqnah, scarf or sheila)

Please note: Good Akhlaq is expected from all participants at all times. Anyone not following the dress code above will have marks deducted from their final result.

The Organisers/Judges

- Will carry out a brief on the rules and the marking system before the competition.
- The judges' decision will be final, with no appeal.
- They will judge every aspect very critically and they will maintain impartiality.
- The judges may be male or female. Participants will not be able to request to be assessed by a particular judge. For the Open Recitation and Hifdh categories, we will ensure that all male participants are judged by male judges and female participants by female judges.

The Competition

- ◆ The competition will take place in public where the participant shall recite in front of the judges. Other participants, spectators and the MHQC team members may also be present.
- ◆ As part of the registration process, participants can opt out of being photographed or being on video. If participants want to request no live streaming, this needs to be requested.
- ◆ The competition dates and times may change depending on unforeseen circumstances.
- ◆ Participants are only allowed to compete in their age group (based on their age on the date of the competition).
- ◆ If participants of the tafseer category prefer to present in another language, this needs to be requested during the registration process. All efforts to accommodate requests will be made but may not always be possible.

- ◆ Copies of the Mus'haf (Qur'an) shall be provided to participants during the competition. Participants will have the option to choose between the Uthman Taha or Indo-Pakistani script, which will NOT be color-coded. It is the participant's responsibility to inform the judge or competition coordinator of their preferred script before beginning their recitation. Failure to do so will result in them reading from the default script provided on the day

MHQC organizers reserve the right to dismiss, cancel and/or disqualify any participant without liability at any time, with immediate effect; this includes, but is not limited to, any participant who tampers with the operation of the competition or competition site or violates the terms and conditions, or any other applicable laws and regulations.
